She would like to thank each and every one of you for your prayers. She said she knows that it was due to your prayers that the results came back like they did. Since the biopsy came back negative, it is still unknown at this time as to what the spot on her lung is but she is scheduled for another CT scan in two months for a follow-up. In all of my life I have never been sick and unable to be at church for so long! It was wonderful to be here and teach my class Sunday morning! Thank you all for your prayers!

Darrell Chappell is the author of this week's article. It is entitled: "Where is God?"

Like many of you recently, the Las Vegas massacre has left me racking my brain to make some kind of sense of what has happened and why we continue to see it over and over. I am unable to comprehend why people commit these horrible acts of violence. Each time it happens, a common conversation begins to surface through media or even in those around us at work or in the community. "Where is God? Why would He allow this to happen?" In our grief, we try and make some sense of it all; it is a natural response for us to try and understand why God would allow it. We turn to God for answers, but we should be attributing these escalated attacks to our true adversary. Ephesians 6:12 says, "Our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the powers of this dark world and against spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realm." We are taught through scripture, that the evil one comes to "steal and kill and destroy." (John 10:10). What we are seeing in the world today is not new. The evil one and his helpers have been committing acts of violence against mankind since he tempted Eve in the garden.

We have forgotten as a society who the evil is. We tend to label evil and attribute it to an act or give it life through a person or a certain religion or group of people. But the fact is, the devil is the evil power that roams throughout the world. He is not some mythical creature that only exists in stories of fiction or make believe. The devil is always on the move looking for his next victim. The devil has but one goal in mind and that is to try and distract us away from the Good News that calls us heavenward. We need to stay on guard from the wicked and evil ways that Satan will use against us. We must arm ourselves with the full armor of God so that we are ready to take a stand when he comes. If he was willing to come after Jesus in the desert, you can rest assured that he will come after us also.

We know the end of the story and with great confidence, we can trust that Satan has been defeated. God is right where he has always been ruling over everything. He has not gone anywhere and our Savior Jesus Christ is sitting at His right hand.
